COLONIAL WINS SCHOOL PRESS PROJECT AWARD

Graham Writes Winning Article

Two Certificates of Honor have been awarded to St. Joseph County school newspapers this year in the 15th annual School Press Project, and one of these goes to the Washington-Clay "Colonial." The item judged was entitled "What the St. Joseph County TB League Does With Christmas Seal Money" and was written by Robert Graham, R. R. #5, Box 639, S. B. - a freshman. Robert's article was originally written for the Christmas Seal Speech Contest in November, and with it he won the elimination contest at Washington-Clay.

The other certificate was given to the "Mishawaka Alltold" for an article written by Donna Neff.

The School Press Project is sponsored each year by the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated associations, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Noted journalists act as judges keeping in mind both the educational and the journalistic values which are the twin targets of the project. This year 303 schools in 38 states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii were represented in the national project. Only six certificates were received in Indiana, including the ones to the "Alltold" and the "Colonial."

Locally the project is sponsored by the Junior Board of the Tuberculosis League, and eight newspapers from seven high schools in the county were submitted by them to the Indiana Tuberculosis Association in January. Of these only the "Colonial" and the "Alltold" were forwarded to the National Committee where both were announced winners.

N.C.C.J. INSTITUTE MEETS TO FORMULATE PLANS FOR CONVENTION

Dr. Alexander, Purdue U., Principal Speaker.

The N.C.C.J. meeting was held at Riley High School on Saturday, March 29. The purpose of the meeting was to organize groups of questions to be answered at an institute to be held in the fall.

In the morning a very interesting talk was given by Dr. Alexander of Purdue University on Problems Confronting the High School Students.

The students were then divided into groups to write out questions on student problems. At noon a very delicious luncheon was served in the Riley Cafeteria.

In the afternoon, the group again sub-divided into five groups: 1. Student-student group, which discussed date problems and extra curricular activities. 2. Student-Community group, which talked over various things such as why the community recognizes us as teenagers and yet charges us adult prices. 3. Student-Parent group, which discussed allowances and other similar problems. 4. Student-School

SCHOOL HOLDS EASTER PROGRAM

"Let Us All With Gladsome Voice" rang out in the gym fourth hour April 9th as the chorus opened the Junior high program. Shirley Pearson then sang a very beautiful solo "Calvary" accompanied by Dixie Barnhart at the piano. The eighth grade presented the play, THE CHILDREN HEAR ABOUT EASTER. The students who participated in this play are as follows:

Amos	David Pence
Barak	Dean Steak
Felix	Don Hosler
Caleb	Benny Richards
Laban	Dick Willer

group, which discussed understanding between the faculty and students. 5. Inter-Racial group, which found there was much less prejudice among teen agers than among adults. Talk over your ideas about these problems and then plan to have someone of your group attend the large institute in the fall which will give answers and possible solutions to these questions. If you are interested, contact Magdalene Gaedtke, our high school representative, or Mrs. Schmidt.

MOCK ELECTION TO BE HELD

ALL SENIOR HIGH STUDENTS ELIGIBLE

Who's your favorite candidate for the presidency of the United States? Are you one of those people who like Ike, or do you follow with the backers of Taft. Maybe Senator Kefauver is your favorite to go all the way. Now is your chance to get out and vote for your favorite candidate. No matter who you are backing, whether it be Ike, Taft, Kefauver or one of the many others running for office, be sure to vote!

The senior class, under the direction of Mr. Oglesby, their sociology teacher, and Tom Swank, the general chairman, are holding a mock election here at Washington-Clay April 22. As in every election there will be some rules you must follow if you want your vote to count. First, you must be a high school student, second you must register before 3:30 today, April 18th. On the day of the actual election you must vote at the place where you registered, and you must fold your ballot in such a manner that the initials of the polling clerk will be on the outside of the ballot. If your ballot is not folded correctly it will not be counted.

Also helping to make this campaign a huge success are George Colip, who along with Maxine Grodey head the registration committee. Peggy Shoup is the chairman of the ballot committee aided by Bill Gordon and Susie Roden. The publicity chairman is Bill Rankin.

With the full co-operation of the whole student body this project will prove to be very interesting as well as educational.

G. A. A.'s ANNUAL SPRING DANCE TONIGHT

TICKETS ON SALE NOW

The G.A.A. will hold their annual Spring Dance tonight from 8 to 11 P. M. in the gym. Music will be provided by Mac Hall and his orchestra. Tickets may be purchased today from any G.A.A. member or Miss Mather. The dance is open to the general public and tickets will be sold at the door.

SPRING

By Susie Roden

It's spring again! What a wonderful time to be alive. It makes one want to sing, God is in His Heaven and all is right with the world. Mother Nature waves her wand and all the earth awakens bringing forth a beauty which has never been captured on canvas by any artist. Along with all the magic of spring, all our hopes and desires are reborn. We talk about new clothes — new hats — dream about vacations and plan spring gardens. Whether we will plant a flower garden or a vegetable garden, we prepare the soil, buy the best seeds, and plant them with loving care. We watch for the first tender leaves to appear, weed it dutifully, always hoping for a plentiful harvest.

We, the youth of America, are now planting a garden — the garden of our life. We are in the spring of our lives. For us it is the most wonderful time to be alive, and we are planting seeds of virtue in our gardens hoping for a wonderful harvest. The seeds we plant must be of a good quality. Let us look at some of them. First, we must plant wisdom. In the book of Proverbs in the Bible we are told: How much better it is to get wisdom than gold, and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver. "With all the opportunities for education in the United States, we should make the most of our education so that we can understand the problems which will confront us in the years to come. Secondly, we must plant patience. We have to cultivate this seed continuously and carefully. In our work whatever it may be, there will be times when things may not go smoothly, tempers may flare but if we have patience we can finally work it out. Our third seed is love. We should practice the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." We must learn to know our neighbor and then treat him as we would have him treat us. The fourth seed is unselfishness. One of the greatest privileges we have is sharing. And what a joy it is to give to others. We don't have to give gifts of great monetary value to others. Do we ever think of sharing our time? There are people who are sick, crippled, or blind who would get a new lease on life just from a visit or a cheerful word. We should try it — it will make us feel wonderful to know we have given comfort and made some one smile. Another seed we must plant is thankfulness. Do we really stop to think how thankful we should be for what we have? We accept so much for granted. We should be grateful that we have been given good parents, good friends, a church to go to and schools where we can prepare ourselves that we may become good citizens. One general in the Civil War thanked God that he had water to drink. Let us consider everything we have as a gift and learn to be thankful for it. Now we have a package of mixed seeds. They are hope, peace and serenity. They mix well with our other seeds and give our garden strength of character.

Weeds, yes, we will have weeds in our gardens, just like in any other garden, and they must be taken out or the good seeds will be choked and die out. These weeds are called worry, injustice, fear, and temptation. Some times it will be hard to distinguish the weeds from the plants we are cultivating, but they do grow. Before they have matured and taken over the garden, we must rid ourselves of them. Worry will not solve any of our problems. It will only tend to divide our hopes and weaken our ambitions and desires. Injustice has played a large part in our race problems today. We must learn to see each and every individual, regardless of race, color, or creed as a person just like ourselves. We should never fear fear but have faith in ourselves; it is half of the battle. We must resist temptation and at our age we should know right from wrong. We plant our garden well. We cannot be perfect for no one is perfect. We should set a goal and work toward that goal, tend our garden, weed it often and when we reach the golden fall days of our life we will reap a plentiful harvest.

The chorus, directed by Mr. Weiser, sang at the Senior High program. Mr. Dickey introduced the speaker, Reverend Sausman of the Evangelical Reformed Church, who spoke on the seven last days of Christ on earth and what they should mean to us.

TALKING POINT

This fact about talk I've no doubt of,
 Because of the trouble I've been to:
 I seldom can talk my way out of
 The things I'm so often talked into.

SENIORS MAKE PLANS FOR FUTURE CAREERS

Majority Choose Indiana Colleges

Each year the graduating seniors begin to think of definite plans for the coming year. Many of the Washington-Clay high school graduates go on to college. Our seniors this year are no exception and the following seniors are making plans for college:

Anne Coles—One year at Indiana Extension and then finish at Wheaton College.

George Colip—Pre-medical training at DePauw University, Greencastle.

Larry Dershem is undecided but might go to the Moody Bible Institute.

William Gordon—Indiana University.

Patricia Greenwood—Kalamazoo College.

Maxine Grodey — Comptometer School.

Jo Anna Harter—St. Mary's College.

Kathleen Haskins—Comptometer School.

William Hounshell—Indiana University.

Dorothy Johnson—Franklin on a scholarship.

Jerry Miller isn't sure, but he thinks he will go to Indiana University.

Nancy Mooney—Ball State Teacher's College.

Patricia Morse—St. Mary's College.

William Rankin — University of Notre Dame.

Ann Roden—University of Michigan's Nurses' Training School.

Margaret Shoup — Ball State Teacher's College.

Marilyn Smith—Bethel College.

Dwain Spencer—University of Notre Dame.

Betty Strunk—nurses's training but is undecided just where.

Thomas Swank—Indiana University.

Nancy Teeter — Indiana University.

Andrea Wells—to Comptometer School.

To all of these future college students from Washington-Clay we say best of good luck in whatever you try to do.

ANNUAL JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM MAY 10

Seniors and Their Guests To Be Honored By Underclassmen.

The Junior-Senior Prom will be held May 10 from 9 - 12 at the Progress Club of South Bend. Herb Germann and his orchestra will furnish the music. The Prom has always been the social high point of the year. The following rules will help to keep it the nicest affair of our school.

1. Grand March. As you all know, a "Prom" would not be a Prom without its "Promenade" or Grand March.

Music: March Time.

The group forms in couples at the sides of the room facing toward the rear of the room.

On the signal to start, both lines march toward the rear, turn and meet in the center. Here the two couples join and march four abreast to the front of the room. At the front of the room, every second "foursome" alternates going to the right and to the left. (If the first four turn right, the second four turn left, the third four right, etc. In other words, YOU WATCH THE SET IN FRONT OF YOU, if they turn to right, then your row will turn to the left.

After separating at the front of the room the two rows march again to the rear of the room and at the rear joining, and march forward to the front of the room eight abreast.

On the signal, they turn toward the orchestra and follow the directions of the orchestra leader.

CAUTION: In making the turn to RIGHT OR LEFT, the one on the INSIDE acts as a pivot, so instead of marching ahead, he or she "marks time" until the person at the end of the row catches up. Otherwise, the person at the end of the row has to run, which does not look well at a formal party.

2. All Juniors and Seniors of Washington-Clay are admitted free. $2.00 is paid for any out of school guest.

3. The boy should go to the door for the girl; he should never set out in front and honk the horn.

4. It is requested that you arrive as near nine o'clock as possible and remain throughout the evening unless there is a special reason to leave earlier. You are not allowed to leave and return to the dance.

5. If possible on arriving, the boy should park the car after taking the girl to the door. The girl will remain in the outer lobby until the boy returns; if there are two couples one of the boys may remain with the girls.

6. While the boy is checking the wraps, the girl may go to the girls' dressing room to put the finishing touches to her costume, arranging where to meet.

7. After they have arrived and have checked their wraps they will go to the receiving line. In making the introductions, the stranger should be introduced. You should introduce a man to a woman; a boy to a girl; or a young person to his elder. When being introduced just say "How do you do." A boy should always rise when introduced to a girl.

8. If a girl refuses a dance to one partner, she should not dance

PLATTER CHATTER

By Petie and Nan

Hi Kids:
 Well, how's every little thing this week; things been going your way? We sure hope so. We've had troubles ourselves this week trying to pick songs. You see they come and go so fast, we can't keep up with them. Now that spring is here as we say a Young Man's Fancy Turns to Love, we've picked a lovey "bunch" for you this week.

We see a lot of boys and girls walking around hand in hand, so we feel these songs will be appropriate. "Wishin'" by Perry Como is just about top for all the girls that don't have prom dates as yet. Then a good stand by "Bermuda" by the Bell sisters for anyone who wants to take a dreamy trip. "Since My Love Has Gone" by Tony Bennett and "Come What May" by Patty Page, also a not so familiar song but a question every girl asks, "Did Any One Call" by Rose Mary Clooney. Another favorite still on top, "Tenderly" by R. Clooney, also "Any Time" will be good by Ed Fisher and we might mention that he is now Pfc. Ed. Fisher. A new record that's got every girl dreamy eyed is "Trust in Me," once again by Pfc. Fisher, (but don't believe them, girls).

Now for a few for our jazz readers we have "Hambone" by F. Lane and J. Stafford's "Black Smith Blues." A few slow, mellow, romantic songs, the "Blue Tango" by Roy Anderson and "Perfidia" by Ray Noble.

Well, kids we hope nothing ever happens that will prompt you to sing "I Walk Alone," a Capitol recording by Bert Taylor. It's a very sad song.

The trouble with being a good sport is that you have to lose in order to prove it.

Anybody who can swallow a pill at a drinking fountain deserves to get well.

with another boy for the same dance.

9. A girl does not encore a dance; this is done only by the boy.

10. The boy does not leave the girl in the middle of the floor, but escorts her to a chair.

11. A girl never crosses the dance floor alone. If she wishes to cross, a boy will go with her.

12. GUM - CHEWING IS ABSOLUTELY NOT ALLOWED.

13. You should say good night to a teacher or chaperone as you leave.

14. The usual dress is a formal for the girl and a suit for the boy.

15. The boy must not remove his suit jacket or unloosen his necktie.

16. It is not necessary to buy an expensive corsage. One moderately priced is usually bought.

17. The corsage should be pinned on the right side for dancing (if worn on the shoulder.)

18. If a boy or girl cannot dance it is their duty to see that their partner has a dance.

19. The boy should escort the girl to the punch and the girl should be served first.

20. The escorts of the King and Queen should couple together and follow behind the King and Queen.

THIS & THAT

By Tessie and Mary Ann
 You sure can tell that spring is here!!! Have you noticed all the couples??
 Let's take a look; and dedicate some songs:
 Ronnie Hodgson and Harriet Wagner — "Always."
 Joan Fourgerousse and Jack Walton — "I'll Get By."
 Don Hardy and Julie Stemen — "One Love Have I."
 Dale Froh and Marilyn Hoblitzel — "Forever and Ever."
 Kenny Whistler and Yvonne Schryer — "Always You."
 Peggy Shoup and Russ Taylor — "It's Wonderful."
 Dick Cerele and Lorretta Babcock — "All My Love."
 Petie Klowner to Tom Doades — "So Long It's Been Good to Know You."
 Jerry Miller and Ann Coles — "Never Before."
 Ernie Miller and Bonnie Kleindinst — "You Wonderful You."
 Carol Sue Shelly to Dennis Lynch — "Any Time."
 Loretta Dell to Myron Hunsberger — "Why."
 Through The Halls.
 Who does Mary Lou Romine dream about in History class? ? ? Look out Bill Hounshell!!!
 We see that Janet Lane has her eye on the Navy. What's his name Janet?
 Looks like Nancy Kleinrichert is just too serious for Jim Webber!!!
 Mary Bayer thinks Gene Gregory is quite the cassanova. How come?
 We see the flame is burning again between Diana Nemeth and Danny Augh.
 We see that Randy Grounds and Lucy Lupa are getting along together pretty well. How about it, kids? ?
 Say George Kessler, what's this between you and Sandra Nagy? Tell us more.
 We see that Janice Snyder has a new admirer from Adams. Tell us more Janice.
 What happened to Gene Gregory (The Great Cassanova), did he lose his touch? ? ? ?
 What happened to Rever Maxwell and Judy Colip?
 A nice foursome: Don Blackford, Mort Stevens, Francis Smith, and Marna Minnie.
 Why does Theresa Wagner like Ed 5th hour? Is it because she sits next to Paul Omstead? ? ?
 Diana Nemeth, who is this flaming interest at Adams? ? We hear his name is Ted Carlson.
 Who is the attraction for Roger Ullery at Adams? ? ? ?
 Congratulations to all the Juniors that participated in the play: You did a wonderful job!!!
 By the way, if you are anticipating a date with a fellow from Hawaii and don't know just what to wear, ask Nancy Kleinrichert, she'll tell you.
 Lois Kubiak thinks quite a lot of Karl Joss, but rumor has it that Karl has a crush on Ruth Colley!

SAM

Down the hall, straight to Mr. Fick's 7-2's home room. "Hello, Mr. Fick, we'd like to see two real nice people for the Colonial." So out in the hall steps a 5' 2", dark brown-haired lad to be our Sam. "Hi," I said, "what school did you go to before this one?" "Maple Lane," he answers. He went on to tell me that he is all of thirteen years old. This mighty lad weighs one-hundred and thirty pounds. At home he spends most of his time listening to any mystery program he can find, and eating his favorite food, steak.

When it comes to music, Bing tops his list as a favorite singer and "Wheel of Fortune" is his favorite tune.

Here is a lad that will welcome summer, because it is his favorite season and his favorite color — green!

At school he turns to favor math and Mr. Fick, while basketball tops his sports list. He mentioned Washington-Clay, in his opinion is the "best school" and the teachers are swell.

Don Schlundt is his favorite basketball star, but he thinks our team was wonderful as a team.

He has two sisters and two brothers, this might add to his opinion of girls which is — she must be a one-man girl, be true to that one man, like sports, be fun, a good conversationalist, and be clean cut.

Those are all top standards and we hope you find your ideal girl, Phillip Hoffman.

HOBBIES

Everyone should have a hobby. It takes up spare time and also is a lot of fun. This week we have picked Edward Van Kirk to tell us about his hobbies. Ed likes to fly airplanes, makes model airplanes, take and develop pictures and play the violin.

He flies the Aeranaco and Cessna planes. He thinks flying airplanes is fun. He likes model airplanes because he can make them in two hours and wreck them the next hour.

He develops his own pictures. He has taken many pictures here at school.

Ed has been playing the violin for three years. He plays square dance music.

If you want to know anything about airplanes, just ask Ed and maybe if you ask him he would take your picture.

Joe Gostola of Madison has captured the heart of Onalee Hicks.

Janet Lane is seeing a lot of Hank Eisele of Niles!

George Badgero, did you know that Janet DePriester thinks you are cute? Better watch out!

Couples Seen Together

Jeanie Strunk and Larry Lauderback.

Connie Claffey and Lee Stone.

Satch Holcomb and Sherelyn Serene.

John Morse and Nancy Miller.

THEME SONGS

Sherry Kubsch — "Undecided." She can't seem to decide whether it's Pat, Art, Porky, Harold, or Duke!

Jim Webber — "There's Nothing Like a Dame." Does he really hate them as much as he says???

Sandra Nagy — "I've Got a Crush on You." This applies to anyone.

Barbara Crynes — "Why Does it Get So Late So Early?" Especially when he only has an 8-day leave.

Jay Guy — "Life Gets Tedious, Don't It?" He should know.

Bill Danielson — "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes!" Whoops!! That's supposed to be a secret?

Ruth Colley — "Love Somebody." But she won't say who!

Randall Grounds — "Ham-Bone." Ask Don Cleary??

Junior Play Cast — "A-Round the Corner." Which corner?

Students of W. C. to old school — "So Long, It's Been Good to Know Ya."

Cassanovas of the Junior Class — to all girls — "I Wanna Love You!" To All Students on the verge of flunking — "Try."

JUNIOR-HI TEACHER OF THE WEEK

By Phyl

As I was in town the other day, I thought I saw a teacher I knew, so I hurriedly walked on down the street to try and catch him. Just as I was about within speaking distance he ducked into a restaurant so I followed him and found he had his favorite food, which is chicken.

We sat and talked and I found his eyes to be dark brown matching his hair.

Just as he was leaving he weighed himself and found he was 180 pounds, but after all his height is 5 feet 10 inches.

I asked him his home town and he said, Berne, Indiana. He is a graduate of Ball State Teachers' College.

His favorite sport is every sport, and he likes to attend softball, baseball, and such games for a hobby.

It was getting pretty late, so I thanked Mr. Bauman and went on my way.

WHAT IF . . .

By Nancy

Hi out there all you track fans. See if you can catch the joke the first time. I'll bet you two-to-one you can't.

Sitting in front of me in English class is Julius, I was imagining him as being nearer instead of Farkus.

Well, try this. What if Bill were a tornado instead of just a small Wynn.

Next on the program (?) we have Mary . . . just imagine her as a cub instead of a Bayer.

There's always a chance that Don could become a softy instead of being so Hardy.

What if Dick were a clarinetist instead of a Harper?

Can you see Joyce becoming a nice shade of green instead of being a Brown.

Here are some things that could never happen.

Having no one get F's on their report cards.

No one chewing gum in the movies.

All the lights working at one time.

Absolute quietness in study hall all hour.

No one going steady.

Warm weather coming and staying.

Well all you non-flu, happy people . . . stay smiling until next time . . . Bye . . .

It's not necessary to take a person's advice to make him feel good — all you have to do is ask it.

(The Saturday Evening Post)

If there is any sin more deadly than envy, it is being pleased at being envied.

WILL YOU BE A KILLER?

(Taken from Seventeen)

I thought some of you might like some advice on your driving.

- When you take a curve, you slow down . . .
 - before you enter?
 - as you're going into the curve?
 - as you're half-way around?
- How much space do you need to stop going sixty miles an hour . . .
 - two hundred feet?
 - three hundred and sixty feet?
 - sixty feet?
- When you drive on a clear road without a speed limit, your safest speed is . . .
 - eighty miles an hour?
 - thirty miles an hour?
 - forty miles an hour?
- Where should you drive most cautiously . . .
 - rural areas?
 - suburban areas?
 - cities?
- There's much less traffic at night, so you drive . . .
 - faster?
 - slower?
 - more cautiously?

Answers for above:

1-a; 2-b; 3-c; 4-a; 5-c.

I will give you some more hints next issue.

So long — Gwen.

CLAY DOWNS TROJANS

In their second start of the track season the Washington-Clay cinder men won over the Lakeville Trojans 68½ - 40½. The rundown is as follows:

MEET YOUR TEAM

By Dick Hofferbert

This week I am writing about a boy you probably all know or at least know about.

He was on the varsity basketball squad for two consecutive years. This is his first year on the track team. And he is doing very well, he won two firsts in the hurdles and did very well in the half-mile relay against Washington. You probably know I am talking about Don Hardy. Don is a junior and is five feet nine inches tall.

I asked him what he wanted to do after he graduated from high school and he said that he was as yet undecided.

As far as girls are concerned Don and Julie Steman have been hitting it off very well for quite some time.

As I have already mentioned, Don is on the track team and has been on the basketball squad. But there is something else we must not forget, Don did a very good job as pitcher and outfielder for the baseball team for the past two years. So on behalf of all Washington-Clay, I want to wish Don Hardy the best of luck.

THE BOOK CORNER

By Marilyn

Here are a few interesting books you'll find in the library:

"Cutlass Empire" by F. Van Wyk Mason, begins with Morgan's flight from Cromwells England and his arrival as a castaway on the shores of a Carribean island. It was here Morgan's hatred of the Spaniards was born, when he saw his companions tortured and murdered. Years later, as a great buccaneer captain, he was still exacting vengeance for those deeds; sweeping the western seas of Spanish ships, and sacking Spanish towns.

"Cutlass Empire" is a swiftly paced, breath-taking story of a thrilling life heroically wed in an age of great history and great loves.

"Practically Seventeen" by Rosamond du Jarden, is a number one junior novel. Toby Heydon, a fun-loving teen-age girl, reveals here her thoughts about her family, herself, and her friends.

Here is a story of the months that pass before Toby's seventeenth birthday, lived in the midst of a spirited, small town family. Alive, believable, full of humor, the story will catch the fancy of young moderns everywhere.
