

PROM SET FOR TOMORROW

JUNIORS PRESENT "FATHOM FANTASY"

Tomorrow night from nine to twelve, the junior class will present the Junior-Senior Prom. This year's theme is "Fathom Fantasy" and the decorations will depict scenes from the depths of the ocean.

As the couples enter the gym, they will be greeted by many school officials and teachers, including Dr. and Mrs. Alex Jardine, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dake, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stockdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oglesby. In the center of the floor will be the remains of a Spanish galleon, and throughout the evening the guests will dance to the swaying music of Eddie Jarrett's band.

Tables and chairs where the couples may sit will be placed in the stage room, which will be portrayed as Davy Jones Locker, and also in the cafeteria where King Neptune will preside. Punch, cookies, and tea sandwiches will be served as refreshments.

Colored pictures of the couples will be taken in the surge area by DeGroff's. The background for the portrait memories will be white satin draped with gold nets.

The high point of the evening will be the crowning of the king and queen and their court. A special number will be played by the band to which honored couples will dance.

The sophomore servers for this year's prom are Joe Kodba, Jay Farquhar, Bill Goss, Jessie Neely, Pat O'Neil, Denny Papaczynski, Vic Singleton, and Rick Hall.

Following the prom, the couples are invited to attend a movie "Mr. Moses" at the State Theater. The movie will start at 2:30 A.M. This activity is sponsored by the parents and will be chaperoned by them.

Much time and effort has been put forth by students, teachers, and parents to make this prom a success. The prom co-chairmen, Mary Dillon and Jeff Tusing, along with their committees would like to express their deep appreciation for the help and advice they have received from the office, Miss Rhodes, and the junior homeroom sponsors. These sponsors and the committees they supervised are: Mrs. Goheen and Mr. Bonham, decorations; Mrs. Oehler, favors and programs; Mr. Hunter, tickets, reservations, and pictures; Mr. Warren, invitations and servers; and Mr. Dimich, refreshments and coronation. A special thanks goes out to the head sponsor, Mrs. Walters, who worked so faithfully to see that every committee was functioning well and had all the materials they needed to make this prom the best Clay has ever presented.

Speech Class Presents Play

Last week the speech class presented the play "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners". Performances were held on May sixth and seventh from 2:00-3:30, and also on May sixth at 7:30 P.M.

The play revolved around the story of a young boy, Bill McGinnis, who fell over a railing and was killed. The town blames the accident on the janitor of the building, Mr. Koyalesky, played by Mike Rozow, but later realizes that they are all guilty of neglect.

The cast of the play was as follows:

- Dr. Caldwell--Tom Rudacsis
- Mrs. Caldwell--Margie O'Malley
- Mr. Prince--Bill Eckert
- Mrs. Prince--Jackie Hubbard
- Mr. Woodridge--John Hutchinson
- Mrs. Woodridge--Ann Sayers
- Mr. Wright--Terry Singleton
- Mrs. Wright--Renee Spooner
- Mr. Rogers--John Finch
- Mrs. Rogers--Kathy Partridge
- Mr. McGinnis--Geza Bruckner
- Mrs. McGinnis--Judy Inglett
- Bob McGinnis--Tom Cluchowski
- Bert Hendricks--Rollin Kocsis
- Elizabeth Wright--Cheri Dunkleberger
- Janet--Margie Bonge
- Madge--Diane Harner

Orientation to be Held for Freshmen

On May 21, Clay High School will hold its first orientation day for next year's freshmen. Approximately 300 students from the junior high school, Christ the King, and St. Mary's will be introduced to our school between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m.

The students will be taught the school song and welcomed by Mr. Hodge and the Student Council President, Rick Morgan. Mr. Harbaugh will introduce school personnel that the students will be most likely to meet the first week of school. The members of Student Council will lead the students on a tour of our school and present a brief skit after which there will be a discussion of some of the more important rules of the school.

By this program, the Student Council will project a more welcoming picture and will help to avoid confusion on the first day of school.

Class officers for the next year have been elected by their respective classes.

The Class of '68 (this year's freshmen) will be led next year by president Leslie Kodba, vice-president Sue Keeler, secretary Candi Seniff, and treasurer Tom Leonakis.

This year Leslie has been in Y-Teens and Future Teachers. She enjoys dancing, swimming, playing tennis, and listening to records. Her favorite books are Little Women and Gone With The Wind. Leslie plans to go to college and become an elementary teacher.

Sue is in Speech and Debate this year, and serves on the Youth Council of her church youth group. She likes to take care of her calf, cook, and read about horses. Sue wants to go to Purdue or Colorado State College, and major in animal husbandry or botany.

Candi served on the AFS Committee, Student Council, Cheerblock, and Rainbow. She likes to swim, ski, read, and go horseback riding. Candi's favorite type of music is modern jazz and her favorite author is James G. Michener. She plans to become a physical education teacher after college.

Tom is active in the AFS Committee, Student Council, Hi-Y, and in his church youth group. He likes to eat, participate in sports, and work (?). Tom says he likes everything!

Next year's leaders for the Class of '67 are president Dave Kovacsics, vice-president Pam Yuhasz, secretary-Becky Fish, and treasurer-Sue Ellen Kollar.

Dave has been a member of Future Teachers, Speech and Debate, the AFS Committee, and Student Council. He enjoys swimming, diving, and horseback riding. Among his favorite books are Les Miserables, and Fall Safe. Dave hopes to attend the University of Notre Dame to major in foreign languages or political science.

Pam, a member of the Student Council, art club, AFS Committee, Y-Teens, and G.A.A., enjoys talking, horseback riding, bowling, and playing the piano. Her favorite authors are Poe and Dr. Seuss. She plans to attend college for either commercial art or elementary teaching.

Becky, a participant in Student Council, AFS committee, G.A.A., Y-Teens, Rainbow, Future Nurses, and band treasurer, likes horseback riding, dancing, ukelele playing, stamp collecting and scuba diving.

Sue Ellen has been a member of Y-Teens and Health Careers Club and is presently a member of the Future Teachers and French Club. In addition to this she is an active member of her church youth group and an officer in Rainbow. Her hobbies and activities include collecting post cards, corresponding with her French pen-pal, dancing, swimming, playing the clarinet, and twirling the baton. Sue plans to attend college after graduation and perhaps become a French or English teacher.

The class of '66 has elected as their officers for next year Ken Wilson-president, Lee Yarian-vice-president, Pam Hutchinson-secretary, and Jean Hackley-treasurer.

Ken has been active in French Club, Student Council, the Foreign Exchange Committee, and DeMolay during his high school years. In his spare time Ken enjoys tennis, reading, hunting, writing poetry (his favorite pastime), and working out at Turners. His favorites include books by Hemmingway, guitar, dance, and mood music; literature and chemistry are his favorite subjects. Ken would like to join the Air Force Academy after graduation and have a career in the Air Force.

Lee, president and treasurer of the Stamp and Coin Club, has also been a member of Hi-Y for two years, French Club and Student Council for one year. He is a prom chairman and treasurer of his youth group. Lee is interested in tropical fish and has recently begun an aquarium shop.

Pam is a member of Y-Teens, Rainbow, Glee Club, French Club, and the coronation committee for the prom. She is interested in studying French and last year she spent six weeks in Switzerland. Her favorite movie is "Goldfinger" and her favorite book is West Side Story. After graduation, Pam would like to attend Taylor University.

Jean, junior class treasurer and vice-president of the Latin Club, is also a member of Future Teachers Association and the Horizon Club. Jean enjoys swimming, horseback riding, and reading. Her favorite books are Lord of the Flies and Old Man and the Sea. Her favorite movie is "Lawrence of Arabia" and her favorite kinds of music are jazz and folk music. She also enjoys listening to the Rolling Stones and Herman's Hermits. Jean plans to attend college and major in math or English.

Mike Rozow, Geza Bruckner, and Rick Irby rehearse a scene from the speech class play.

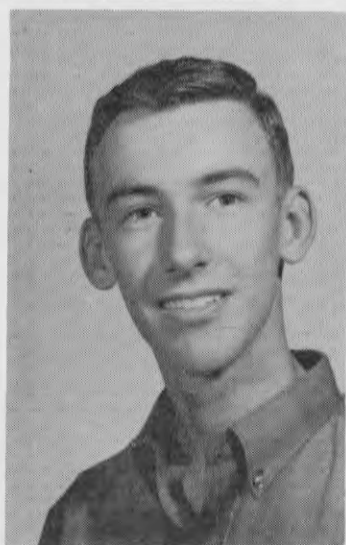

Alice Woodridge -- Charlene Webb

Susan Caldwell--Susan Keeler
Jerry Rodgers--Roger Wesley
Tommy Prince--Danny Tackett
Bill McGinnis--Richard Irby
Painter--Tom Raffier

The stage members for the play were Timothy Tate, John Kacarab, and Ray Hodgson.

Spring Festival Set for Tonight

Tonight, at 8:00 P.M., the Clay High School Choir and Band will present the annual "Spring Festival." The program will be held at the Clay Junior High Gym, and admission is thirty-five cents. The program includes a wide variety of numbers, including a musical skit by the Choir, "Freshman Dance." The climax of the program is a combined number by the Choir and Band, "Gloria", by Mozart. An exhibit of work done by Clay art students will also be shown.

Ken Wilson

Singer Elected to T.B. Office

Thursday, May 6, Andrea Singer was elected Secretary of the Junior Board of the Tuberculosis League. The Junior Board functions to promote good health and to stimulate interest in the work of the Tuberculosis League in the high schools of the county. The league sponsored Health Cross Sales at Notre Dame games, a high school speech contest, a T.B. seal campaign and a poster contest as some of its many projects throughout the year. Next year Dave Kovacsics will also represent Clay on the Board.

Leslie Kodba

OUTSTANDING SENIORS FORD AND ROCKWELL

Sue Ford has been an active member of Speech and Debate for each of her four years at Clay and is the president this year. She has served on the Foreign Exchange Committee for two years and was elected vice-president this year. Sue belonged to Y-Teens her freshman year and has participated in Future Teachers four years. As honor student, Sue has received the PTA award each of her high school years and was inducted into the National Honor Society her junior year.

English, social studies, and language are Sue's majors, and she has a minor in science.

In her spare time Sue enjoys reading, crocheting, and listening to records. Her summer activities are swimming, water skiing, sailing, and racing her family's snipe.

Sue's favorite book is Gone With The Wind by Margaret Mitchell. She enjoys listening to Peter, Paul, and Mary, and her favorite song is, "The Times, They are Changing." She likes folk and popular music in general. Pizza and steak are her favorite foods.

Sue's favorite quotation is "Each must make 'ere life his frown, A stumbling block or stepping stone." After graduation Sue will attend the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor to study liberal arts. She is undecided yet as to what her career will be, but she may teach English or foreign language.

Sue's advice to freshmen is, "The secret to success in high school is to have a goal and to work for that goal with constant effort."

Law Students Visit Court

Mr. Wood and his business law students went to court on May 5, 1965 to be tried. . . . No not to be tried, to watch a real court in action. Fifty interested students went to Superior Court and saw them trying a traffic case. They had to leave before the outcome of the case was decided, but just the same they gained a knowledge and experience as to the workings of a law court and more of an insight to one of our democratic proceedings.

Clay Participates in Student Exchange

From the fourth of May until the seventh, Student Council members from Adams, Clay, Central, Riley, and Washington participated in an exchange of members.

Four members of our council visited Central on May 4, Washington on May 5, Adams on the sixth, and completed the week by visiting Riley on May 7.

Greg Rockwell is a honor student who has received the PTA award each of his years at Clay and is a member of the National Honor Society. He participated in the Spanish Club two years and worked on the MINUTEMAN staff two years. Greg joined Mu Alpha Theta last year and continued his membership this year.

English, social studies, math, and science are Greg's high school majors; he has a minor in Spanish.

For Whom the Bell Tolls by Ernest Hemingway is Greg's favorite book; his favorite author is John Steinbeck. He likes folk music and his favorite singing group is the Serendipity Singers; Telstar is his favorite song. Greg's favorite food is leg of lamb. He likes this quotation by Alfred North Whitehead, "Without adventure, civilization is full of decay."

After graduation Greg plans to study physics at the University of Notre Dame.

Greg's advice to underclassmen is, "Like the Greeks, try to develop both your mind and body to their fullest capacity."

Students Selected for Model U.N.

Eighteen Clay students have been selected as delegates to the South Bend Model United Nations Assembly which will be held at Riley High School in October. These sophomores and juniors were selected by nine teachers, counselors, and administrators. The delegates representing six member nations of the U.N. are as follows:

- Albania - Mary Dillon, Joseph Hunter, Marilyn Cook.
- Brazil - Deborah Clark, John Tarbox, Barbara DelVecchio.
- Hungary - Thomas Hall, Andrea Singer, David Kovacsics.
- Saudi Arabia - Karen DeVoe, Richard Langel, Chris Johnson.
- Tanzania-Cynthia Hosler, Kenyon Wilson, Judy Hentz.
- United States - Michael Horvath, Janice Turrell, Sue Cress.

On Wednesday, May 5, four members of these schools came to Clay. Members of our council escorted them to their classes and during activity period our guests were served refreshments. A Student Council meeting was conducted during sixth hour to show our guests how our council operates. In all it was a very successful and enjoyable day.

The Search for Jobs Poses Problems

About this time of year several million high school students will begin the search for summer jobs. Most students are just interested in the money that a job offers, and some are interested

CLUBS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The French Club has elected its new officers for next year. They are: President, Karen DeVoe; Vice - President, Pam Hutchinson; Secretary, Pam Bowers; and Treasurer, Jane Goodwin.

The next years senior members of the Foreign Exchange Committee as were elected are Andy Singer and Linda Meyer, sophomore members are Martha Ulery and Joe Kodba, and freshmen members are Tom Leonakis and Joan Tabzynik.

The Future Teachers had a May Day Breakfast for the faculty on May 3. Coffee and donuts were served and all present had a good time. The chairman of the breakfast was Barb Del Vecchio.

The G.A.A. is once again planning a picnic this spring for their members.

The National Honor Society has nominated their new officers for 1966-67. They are: President, Andy Singer, Vice - President, Arthur Nord, Cindy Hosler; Secretary, Karen DeVoe, Pam Bowers; and Treasurer, Tom Hall, Ken Wilson.

The Y-teens have also elected their new officers. They are: President, Jane Goodwin; Social, Ginny Morozowski; Service, Dorothy Thomas; Secretary, Diane Dimich; Publicity, Sue Obenchain; Program, Barb Hicks; Membership, Barb Pullman, Devotions, Pam Yuhaz; and Treasurer, Nancy Gardner.

The Y-teens are sending 3 of the members to the Summer Conference this summer. They are Jane Goodwin, Rosemary Wuegler and Cheryl Etmuller. Jane Goodwin is also going to a leadership course this summer.

The Hi-Y gave some poster paints to the office and are also involved in many other charitable endeavors.

Business Department Employs Students

Last fall the business department took volunteers to work either full or part-time for the faculty as typists or stenographers. The full-time workers report to their assigned teacher each day from their study halls just as they would report for a regular job. The faculty member quite often becomes dependent upon their student worker. The part-time worker is called from the study hall as the work develops.

The advantages of working to the student are additional practice in arranging and typing problems and practice in the use of stencils and masters. Frequently, a student is asked to run material off on the spirit duplicator or mimeograph. A student can be aided when they are looking for a job outside of school because they can truthfully say they have had working experience and the teachers can vouch for their ability. The teachers are also good references for job applications. Most of all, though, the program aids the workers in the experience of working in a special field. But the problem remains. There are more students wanting jobs than jobs available. Some of the most common ways of locating summer employment are through friends and relatives, the State-Employment Service, school counselors and "want-ads". Jobs are available as farm hand or harvester, at summer resorts, in retail trade, clerical work, selling jobs or in national parks.

There are several rules to follow when applying for jobs.

self - confidence and responsibility.

1. Study your qualifications and abilities and arrange this knowledge in your mind so that you can present it briefly and clearly during the interviews.
2. Learn as much as you can beforehand about the firm to which you apply.
3. Be prompt to your appointment.
4. Make a presentable appearance. Be neat, clean, and dress appropriately.
5. Be able to give as references the names of at least three responsible and reliable people who know you well and a record of all previous jobs.

GOSSIPAL TRUTH

Sue Henrich wishes everyone in the school to know that she will be graduating first in her class this year.

When Mr. Brumbaugh was absent a couple weeks ago, Art Nord took over the third hour algebra class. The class was rather unruly until Joe Hunter went to the front of the room and started yelling, "Your're acting like a group of finky freshmen!" Actually, Mr. Nord was a very good teacher and the class accomplished more than they usually do.

Cindy Hosler couldn't remember the name of the movie Zorba the Greek and called it Zelda the Great.

The chemistry classes would like to know what is done with the rocks when hard water is made soft; the Culligan man will be the guest speaker someday. Speaking of chemistry, the second hour class broke a record. Denny Ettumuller and Mike Moffet each broke a crusible in a matter of three seconds.

When Mary Thomas was in sixth grade, the teacher made her stand in front of the room because she stuck her tongue out at Charlie Francour.

Debbie Clark's nickname is AC. That stands for "adverse conditions."

Hey, guess what? Sue Crawford grew an inch. She is now a towering five feet tall.

Mr. Kaser, the driver's education teacher, backed his car into Eric Peterson's car.

Linda Meyer drove into a gas station to have a tire checked and the attendant asked if the car belonged to her husband.

Denny Grounds pulled up to a green light and stopped; when it turned red he went across the intersection.

The second hour gym class was seen pulling Rex Richards around the pond behind the school on an old backboard.

We hear that Jonnie Capelli and Ernie Marvin "get together" sixth hour in the gym.

Prom couples are:

- Jeff Tusing-Vicki Hixon
- Mike Szabo-Vicki Harmon
- Jerry Gardner-Sue LeRoy
- Mike Keiser-Sue Cress
- Jeff Parker-Barb Eckert
- Steve Biasini-Connie O'Neil
- Larry Harrell-Andy Singer
- Terry Braden-Lynn Biasini
- Chris Pih-Cindy Wilder
- Craig Grouel-Nancy Ashley
- John Tarbox-Jean Hackley
- Don Bryant-Georgenne Markley
- Dale Marvin-Jonette Capelli
- Ken Wilson-Linda Meyer

Manley, Parker '65 Junior Leaders

Clay's Junior Leaders, Liz Manley and Jeff Parker, have

On June 12 these students will leave the United States to spend six weeks in Leysin, Switzerland, studying French.

Clayites to Visit Switzerland

Again this summer eleven Clay students will spend six weeks in Leysin, Switzerland. Mrs. Schille introduced this program to our school when she and 24 students made the trip last summer. Miss Catron and Miss Jane Martin, home economics teacher at Brandywine, will chaperone the group of Clay students and five from other schools. They are as follows: Janice Blake, Judy Hentz, Candy Jarret, Barb Sante, Myra Wraight, Janice Johnson, Betty Barnett, Betty Brune, Diane Wagner, Becky Fish, Peggy Straka, Cathy Callahan (Brandywine), Carol Hughes (St. Mary's Academy), and Mary Ann Eddy (Worthington, Ohio).

The Switzerlanders will leave Chicago on June 12 at 7:00 a.m. and arrive in Geneva on June 13. They will live in the American School in the small town of Leysin, studying French from 9 to 12 every weekday. On weekend trips they will visit Gstaad, Lucerne, Interlocken, Berne, Chillon, Lake St. Leonard, and Geneva. They will also take a four-day trip to Paris. The entire trip costs only $735.

The Switzerlanders return to New York on July 25, after which many will also visit the World's Fair. All in all the trip will be a valuable experience for all involved.

Renowned Organist Plays at Clay

On Tuesday, May 11, Kenneth Goodman, an internationally renowned organist, performed at an assembly in Clay High School gymnasium.

Kenneth Goodman is a four year graduate from the famous Juillard School of Music in New York City. In 1952 he was awarded a fellowship to study for a year in Paris. He has played in the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C.; he has also played in France, Holland, Belgium, Germany, and all of the Scandinavian countries. He was the guest of Dr. Albert Schweitzer, one of the world's greatest authorities on Bach music. While in Holland, he played for Queen Juliana. During the past year, he has been on an extensive tour of Australia, New Zealand, and Japan.

"Bob, I've got it. I think, I think I know how Elaine was killed." The pair hurried up the stairs with Horatio in the lead. They burst into the room that was the scene of the murder. Horatio pulled a chair from the side and placed it in the middle of the room. He pulled the twisted wire out of his pocket and handed one end towards Bob. "Here hold this end and sit in the chair."

"But, Horatio, What are you doing?"

"No, but, just do as I say," Bob did as he was told and sat in the chair. He held the wire. Then Horatio slowly began to unroll it. It reached the wall! He pulled it towards the wall plug. It fit perfectly.

"Bob, if I stuck this wire in the socket, you'd die instantly."

"You mean?"

"Yes, Bob, Elaine electrocuted herself. She committed suicide."

MURDER OF THE MIND CHAPTER VII THE SUMMIT

By John Tarbox

Horatio awoke in the muggy London night. The beads of perspiration covered his body, and one could not tell whether they were from the humidity or fear. The case was shambles. All the suspects were freed, and Horatio didn't know the murderer from Adam. He rubbed his palms together, and little streaks of dirt rubbed across his hands. He tossed the lone sheet off, and tramped over to the bathroom. The cold shower drove away the beads of sweat, for awhile at least; and Horatio, dry and refreshed, sat down in the living room. He lit up a cigarette and puffed gently in the night. Hmm, the old stoker said the key of the case was the chair. The chair. The chair. Why the chair? The chair was in the middle of the room. She was in the chair when she was murdered.

been elected by the senior class. These honored juniors will lead the seniors in commencement exercises in June.

Liz has been active in G.A.A. and cheerleading for two years. She likes gymnastics, cooking, and sewing. Liz likes to eat hamburgers, rare steak, and tuna, and enjoys all types of music very much. After high school she plans to attend college.

Jeff, who participates in football and wrestling, is a member of the Varsity Club and the Teenage Republicans. He enjoys any kind of food and is a member of the Explorer Scouts.

ed, but how was she murdered. The murderer came in the window with the wire and strangled her. I don't know why? But why was the chair in the middle of the room? The killer wouldn't strangle her and then put her in a chair in the middle of the room. Why would she be sitting in the chair? It was never there before, and the wire, why did the killer leave the murder weapon at the scene of the murder? Oh, man, this doesn't add up. Suddenly, Horatio jumped to his feet. He whirled across the room, rummaged through a drawer, and pulled out the twisted wire. Horatio hurried into his clothes, and then stuffed the wire in his pocket. He hurried out of his apartment.

Horatio sped along Churchill Expressway, the wind rushing by. The speedometer edged past 60 as he shifted his Ferai into fourth gear. In 15 more minutes Horatio reached Bob's country estate. His car tore down the driveway, throwing rocks as it went. The car screeched to a halt in front of the door and Horatio went up and pounded on it. A half-minute later, Bob dressed in pajamas and sleepy-eyed, opened the door.

Anticipation High for Prom

Girls are a little funny when it comes to the Prom (really they aren't if one can look at it from their point of view). Ever since a girl first turned her attention to boys she's been looking ahead to the Prom. The hopes and wishes they have for tomorrow night are the most important and only things in their lives today.

The day a girl was asked was the second greatest day in her life next to May 15. That was the day her dreams started to become reality. Feelings are at both ends of the scale at Prom time.

To a girl this is one night out of the year when she can be her prettiest. It's when she's a queen in her own right.

To a guy it's a little different. He was a little shy or slow at the special someone because he was afraid of being turned down or find himself in a mess and have the date broken. Or maybe he didn't have to worry about asking, maybe he was pushed in a corner about it or maybe it was taken for granted. Sometimes it was formal or off-the-cuff. Maybe he didn't ask his date the way she would like. Even the math genius, the best mechanic or most skilled athlete gets confused when he asks a girl to something as special as the prom.

He worries about getting the car and earning enough money. He has to figure out what kind of color of corsage to get, and what is the proper way to wear all the formal stuff.

This is the night when he can show his girl how much he appreciates her and what kind of a gentleman he is. He dreams about it, not as much as the girl though. He dreams about how beautiful she'll be and how he can make her proud of him.

Tomorrow night the most precious dreams in our short life will become reality and then precious memories, or they may be shattered. The smallest thing could mar them, a world once uttered, a misplaced action, an overlooked courtesy or a chance to show your true self. Most of the dreams will become reality and precious memories because those dreamers will be more concerned about being a lady or gentlemen and making their date or escort proud of them than their own happiness.

The things that happen tomorrow night will become memories for a lifetime. For those who have planned carefully and will be understanding of another's feelings and dreams; this span of so few hours, with so much anticipation and hope will forever become precious memories.

In the hands of every person lies the hopes and dreams of those around them tomorrow night. What you do or say can make precious and lasting memories or the unhappy experience of a shattered dream in a young heart that's best forgotten but never is.

Baseball Nine Own 8-4 Record

Clay's baseball record now stands at three wins and seven losses. Coach Reinebold, however, still has hopes for a winning season. The schedule for the first half of the season was among the toughest in the area. Logansport and Benton Harbor are both undefeated and Riley has lost only one.

The major problem, according to Coach Reinebold, has been fielding and hitting. The leading hitters after the Benton Harbor game were Tom Allen with a .280 average and Mark Miller at .241.

At the beginning of the season, pitching was thought to be the major problem. Most of the pitchers are freshmen and sophomores, with relatively little experience. This department is coming around now, however, Coach Reinebold says that although there is no single pitching star, there is more depth than last year.

NEW GRID SCHEDULE TOUGHEST IN AREA

As Coach King puts it-next year's football season is an opportunity to see if Clay can come up to the challenge of playing the best football in the state. The coaches will be the same as last year with King as head coach, Stinson-line coach, Hunter-defensive coach, Gleason-backfield and "B" team coach, and Huston and Wood-freshmen coaches.

Next year Clay will be going up against the toughest schedule ever, perhaps one of the toughest in Indiana.

The team will shape up well next year, Jeff Parker and Rick McDonald are the co-captains. The team lost all of its backfield except Steve Szabo who was out most of last year with a knee injury.

The returning starters from last year are: Jeff Parker, Rick McDonald, Steve Szabo, Mark Miller, Tom Singleton, Fred Graybosch, Tony Vargo, and Nick Bruckner.

Over-all the team will be bigger in the line and faster in the backfield but with less experience.

When King was asked what our chances were for a winning season he replied that they'll be slim, unless there's a change in the attitude of the student body towards football.

Dinner: Jelly vertebrae a la centipede

Sunday

Coach Miller Resigns After 6 Years Here

Coach Jerry Miller, Clay varsity basketball coach for the past two years, has resigned. When interviewed, Coach Miller had this to say about his resignation: "I have certainly enjoyed my six years of coaching at Clay and I feel that the boys I have had in basketball have been excellent representatives of Clay High School. It is my hope that these boys have not only learned the fundamentals of fine basketball, but also the basic fundamentals of life and will become a real contribution to our society."

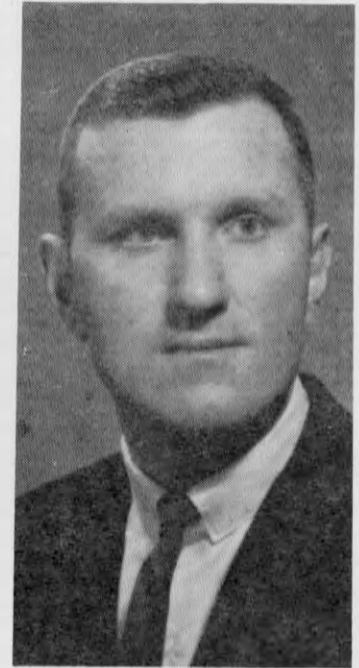

"I regret leaving the returning basketball players and found this decision very difficult to make. I want to wish them the best of luck and I hope to see them play sometime during the year."

Besides being varsity basketball coach for the past two years, he coached the B-team for four years, compiling a 45-35 record. He also piloted the baseball team for four years, winning 87 and losing 34.

Coach Miller graduated from Washington-Clay in 1952. During his high school career the Colonials won three consecutive county tournies and took Clay's only sectional title in 1951.

After high school Coach Miller attended Wheaton College and graduated in 1956. During his senior year he was captain of the basketball team, leading the squad to 28 wins and only four losses.

After graduation from college he toured South America for two months with the Venture for Victory basketball team, coached by Don Odle of Taylor University. They won all of the 57 games they played, and, more important, they promoted good will between the people they played for and the United States. When asked about the future, Coach Miller says he plans to enjoy the California sun. He is moving there to accept a position as principal of an elementary and junior high school near Pasadena. He also wants to take some additional schooling at UCLA.

Coach Miller will be sorely missed here at Clay. We wish him the best of luck in the future.
